The Army man in the NIC has learned:
1) that ACSI thought we wanted two of their people; 2) that they are thinking of naming a liaison contact whose desk would be in ACSI. This would be a step backward. General Aaron had thought initially of going to the Chief of Staff and asking for a billet for the SWS. He should be encouraged to do this. We have informed Colonel Frederick Turner, his Director of Foreign Intelligence, that we were seeking only one person from Army against either of the job descriptions sent him.

OK - let's go
